

Public Notice - Fake Distributorship of Netmeds

Kindly note that Reliance Retail Limited ("Reliance") is in the retail business of selling various consumer and pharma products and services including operations of the website located at the URL www.netmeds.com and a mobile application under the brand name Netmeds (collectively referred to as "Netmeds") which acts as an online platform facilitating sale and purchase of Products and/or Services. It has come to our notice that in the recent past, some individuals/ persons/ agencies ("Unscrupulous Elements") are falsely holding themselves as authorized representatives of Netmeds and are making false representations to innocent members of public wishing to apply for the distributorship of Netmeds.

Netmeds would like to therefore, advise the Public at large, trade and investors, in their own interest, to beware of such unauthorized distributorship / communications asking for money/payment/money transfers. Netmeds will not be liable to entertain any claim on account of dealing that any member of public, trade or investor may have with such Unscrupulous Elements who pose to be agent/ authorized representative of Netmeds when they are not.

Please note that Netmeds is not looking for any distributorship in India at this time.

Netmeds would like to therefore, advise the Public at large, trade and investors not to fall prey to the designs of such Unscrupulous Elements and Netmeds will not accept any liability for any loss or damage that may be suffered or incurred directly or indirectly in the dealing with such Unscrupulous Elements.

Public Notice is hereby given to all to whom it may concern and Netmeds reserves its right to take stern legal action against such unauthorized distributorship scheme, including civil and criminal action, from the date without any further notice.

Issued in the interest of General Public
